TRIPLE DISTILLED FOR EXCEPTIONAL SMOOTHNESS

The holidays are the time when thoughts turn to friends and family. So gather those you like best and throw a party – elegant or easy, formal or impromptu, grunge or glamour.

To help you be the perfect host, we've put together some drink recipes and bartending hints. But that's just the beginning. The holidays are a chance to go wild, be silly, hook into nostalgia. So hit the party shop. Use plastic holly for swizzle sticks. Fill a bowl with your favorite ornaments and set it on your table.

Just remember, whenever you mix with friends – Smirnoff® keeps the occasion memorable.

Smirnoff Sea Breeze

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
3 oz. Cranberry Juice
2 oz. Grapefruit Juice

Combine ingredients over ice. Garnish with a wedge of lemon or lime.

SMIRNOFF®

Mix with FRIENDS

Smirnoff Vodka Collins

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
Collins Mix to fill

Pour Smirnoff Vodka into ice-filled highball glass. Fill with Collins Mix. Add a slice of orange and a cherry.

Smirnoff Chocolate Martini

1 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
1-1/2 oz. Baileys® Irish Cream
1/2 oz. Crème de Cacao

Shake ingredients with ice to blend and chill. Strain into chilled martini glass. Garnish with chocolate.

Shaken or Stirred?

With apologies to James Bond, drinks made of clear ingredients should be stirred not shaken.

When you do use a shaker, put the ice in first so ingredients are poured over the ice. Then add juices, cream etc. Liquor goes in last.

I can see clearly now.

Tap water becomes cloudy when it freezes, so for really clear ice, use purified or bottled drinking water. After all, why spoil the crystal clarity of triple distilled Smirnoff.

A Hint about your Holiday Stocking...

One 750 ml bottle of Smirnoff equals about 25 servings!

Smirnoff 7

2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
Juice of 1/2 Lime
Lemon-Lime Soda to fill

Pour Smirnoff Vodka and Lime Juice into a glass over ice cubes. Fill with Lemon-Lime Soda. Stir and garnish with a twist of lime.

Mix with FRIENDS

Smirnoff Orange Cosmopolitan

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Orange Twist
1/2 oz. Triple Sec
Splash of Fresh Lime Juice
Splash of Cranberry Juice

Shake ingredients with ice to blend and chill. Strain into a chilled martini glass. Garnish with a long twist of lime.

Smirnoff Madras

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
2 oz. Fresh Orange Juice
2 oz. Cranberry Juice

Add ingredients to an ice-filled glass. Garnish with a slice of orange, lemon or lime.

How does the wedge stay on the glass?

Here's the secret – slice your orange, lemon or lime in half from tip to tip, then slit pulp down the middle of each half. Turn pulp-side-down and slice. Voila – you have a slit in the middle of the wedge to hang on the glass.

The Perfect Twist...

1. Wash fruit.
2. Cut ends off just to the pulp.
3. Slice lengthwise down to the pulp.
4. Continue slicing around the fruit in quarter-inch slices.
5. Starting at tip of fruit, gently pull up a slice of peel, making sure the fruit is not attached.
6. Rub a narrow strip of peel – peel side down – around the rim of the glass. Twist the peel over the drink to release oils, then drop the twist into the drink.

Smirnoff Lemon Drop

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
Lemon Wedge Dipped in Sugar

Chill Smirnoff Vodka over ice, strain and pour into a shot glass. Drink the Vodka. Suck the lemon wedge.

SMIRNOFF®

Smirnoff Cape Codder

1-1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
6 oz. Cranberry Juice

Add ingredients to an ice-filled glass. Stir well. Garnish with a slice of lime.

Smirnoff Orange Twist & Tonic

Tonic to fill

Pour Smirnoff Orange Twist into an ice-filled glass. Squeeze a lemon or lime wedge into the glass and drop in. Fill with Tonic.

Swizzle me, baby!

Have fun by dressing up your drinks with decorative swizzle sticks – available in any party shop.

You're the coolest.

To make the best cocktails, use frozen glasses. Just put the glass in the freezer for 5-10 minutes before using. To actually frost a glass, dip it in water before putting it in the freezer.

Measuring up.

A standard "shot glass" is usually 1.5 ounces. (Sometimes, though, it's 2 ounces with a measuring line at 1.5 ounces.)

All shook up.

Antecedents of the cocktail shaker can be traced to South America where, in 7000 BC, the jar gourd was valued for use as a closed container!

Smirnoff Long Island Iced Tea

1/2 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
1/2 oz. Cuervo® Gold Tequila
1/2 oz. Gordon's® Gin
1/2 oz. White Rum
1/2 oz. Triple Sec
Cola to fill

Combine first five ingredients in a tall, ice-filled glass. Stir. Fill with Cola. Garnish with a cherry.

SMIRNOFF®

Mix with FRIENDS

Smirnoff Kamikaze
1 oz. Smirnoff Vodka
1 oz. Lime Juice
1/4 oz. Triple Sec

The recipe above makes one drink. For a party, multiply ingredients by the number of people you want to serve. Combine in an ice-filled pitcher. Strain into multiple glasses.

Smirnoff Screwdriver
2 oz. Smirnoff Orange Twist
4-1/2 oz. Orange Juice

Pour ingredients into an ice-filled glass and stir. Garnish with a slice of orange and a cherry.
